THESE EVENTS BEGIN AT 8:00PM AND ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC WITHOUT CHARGE

Ramón Romero and Cuerdas de Fuego
Led by one of Paraguay’s leading harpists, this trio of South American and Caribbean musicians present lively music from the cultures of Latin America.

Marian Anderson String Quartet
Pioneers in the changing landscape of classical music, this personable chamber ensemble takes its name from the famous American contralto.

Kevin Locke Native Dance Ensemble
Visionary hoop dancing, soaring powwow vocals, powerful drums, and ancient flute songs keep ancient Native American traditions and cultures alive in a modern world.

Brubeck Brothers Quartet
For the accomplished sons of famed jazz pianist Dave Brubeck, improvisation flows into composed music, and the composed music sounds improvised.

Dervish
One of Ireland’s most exciting bands, Dervish brings to the world the joy, excitement, and fun of traditional Irish music.

Quartet San Francisco with Tango Dancers
With infectious enthusiasm and incredible technique, these performers of world chamber music and fiery dancing show what eight hands, 16 strings, and two supple bodies can do.
A significant part of a student’s educational experience at Berea College is the convocation program, which is designed to help students grow as individuals and prepare for their future careers. The convocation program offers a variety of events that cover a wide range of topics, from art and culture to science and technology. These events are designed to be open to the public and are free to attend, making them accessible to everyone. The convocation program is an important part of Berea College’s mission to educate and prepare students for success in their chosen fields. Whether you are a student, faculty member, or community member, the convocation program offers something for everyone. So mark your calendars and join us for an engaging and educational experience.
