Phelps-Stokes Auditorium • Berea, Kentucky

Larry Coryell and Bombay Jazz
These world music visionaries—Larry Coryell, George Brooks, Ronu Majumdar, and Aditya Kalyanpur—create soul satisfying, original music filled with rich melodies and dynamic rhythms.

La Catrina String Quartet
Named the “generation-next classical music stars,” and hailed by Yo Yo Ma as “ambassadors for music,” this group plays a unique blend of Latin American and standard repertoire.

Tim O’Brien and Bryan Sutton
Leading into the Traditional Music Festival, this duo blends hill country and modern styles of bluegrass to expand the music’s borders.

Orchid Ensemble
Lan Tung on the erhu/Chinese violin, Haiqiong Dng on the zheng/Chinese zither, and Jonathan Bernard on percussion create elegant, intercultural chamber music.

Percussion Group Cincinnati
Master musicians Allen Otte, James Culley, and Russell Bunge redefine the relationships inside rhythms and meter as they create landscapes of sound with their daring, fearless approach.

Anat Cohen Quartet
Led by saxophone and clarinet virtuoso Anat Cohen, this ensemble intertwines Afro-Cuban, Brazilian, and Argentine influences into an exciting jazz program.
