

Academic Honesty

Berea College students are expected to be scrupulous in their observance of high standards of honesty as described in the Student Handbook (see Academic Honesty/Dishonesty).

DAS strives to maintain the integrity of a secure testing environment. Students taking exams in the DAS Testing Room must not engage in activities that compromises academic honesty and integrity. No items, other than approved by your instructor, may be used during the exam.

Students, please know that proctors monitor the DAS Testing Room via live video surveillance. If anything unusual is observed, it will be noted and your instructor will be notified. It might be necessary to stop your exam, depending on the incident. Please refer to the Academic Honesty/Dishonesty policy in the Student Handbook for further details on this process.

If you need assistance or need to use the restroom during the exam, please report to 110 Lincoln Hall (OAS) immediately to notify a proctor. Otherwise, you may not leave the testing room while your exam is in progress.

As you may share the DAS Testing Room with others, please refrain from distracting behavior.
